
We are currently seeking to fill the following position:

Research Assistant
(based in Montreal)

Main Job Responsibilities:

- Data input, retrieval and maintenance
- Maintenance of chart and production runs
- Conducting basic economic and financial market research
- Technical and mechanical production of a weekly fax, special reports etc.

Preferred and Vital Skills:

- Must be able to work independently and as part of a group
- Must be able to adhere to strict production deadlines
- An acute attention to detail and a clear ability to finish a job to fruition
- Must have a keen interest in and knowledge of financial markets, economics and statistics
- Must have a creative and enthusiastic approach to work
- Finance background, B Comm. or B.A. is preferable
- Knowledge of computers is essential. Basic word processing, knowledge of a stats package, and exposure to financial applications and time series databases would be assets.

If you are passionate, focused and driven by the financial markets, we want to hear from you!

Qualified candidates should forward a C.V. and cover letter to:

Pina Vaccaro,

E-mail: recruiting@bcaresearch.com Check out our site at: www.bcaresearch.com

Established in 1949, The Bank Credit Analyst Research Group (BCA Research) is a leading independent provider of international investment research. One of the world's oldest and largest financial market research firms, BCA's in-depth analyses and pointed forecasting of global capital markets, business conditions and investment prospects have earned it a world-renowned reputation for reliability, editorial independence and integrity. With its stable of highly respected monthly publications, weekly strategy services, daily online research as well as customised research and consulting, BCA serves a diverse clientele of prominent financial institutions in over ninety countries worldwide.
